ABOUT

Rockin’ Robbie Hodges is one of the most recognizable faces—and voices—in professional rodeo today. A barrelman, entertainer, and crowd favorite for over two decades, Robbie brings unmatched energy, lightning-fast wit, and fearless barrel work to every arena he enters.

With a long list of accolades—including 2010 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo Barrelman and multiple-time Coors Man in the Can nominee—Robbie has earned the respect of contestants, contractors, and rodeo fans across the country. He doesn’t just stand in the barrel—he uses it, moving with purpose to help protect bull riders and support the bullfighters, all while making the crowd laugh until the last bull bucks.

What truly sets Robbie apart is his authenticity. Whether he’s delivering a show-stopping comedy act, walking through the stands shaking hands, or staying late to sign autographs for kids, he connects with people. Every performance is personal, because every crowd matters.
